I. Opening

Gary B. opened the meeting at 12:00 pm with the Serenity Prayer. Bruce read the Twelve Traditions. Evelyn read the definition of an ASC.

- II. Open Forum New GSR's are: Brian C. Alt.GSR We Have A Choice, Rob Alt.GSR Sunrise Serenity. Randy(GSR Road to Freedom) stated her concern about her group's conscience decision to close the meeting to allow only attendees 15 years old and over, and having called Susan B. Anthony recovery center to inform them of this policy. This action was in response to SBA clients who attend with babies that have continually been a disruption to the meeting. Randy asked for discussion and possible assistance by ASC as she felt this action was a violation of N.A. traditions. Discussion was tabled by Chair until after roll call.

The Conference Agenda Report (CAR) will be available from NA World Services on November 25. The motions in the CAR are those items that will be brought up in old business at the World Service Conference in April 2010. The items in the CAR get sent out to every group in NA for their group conscience. The votes on these motions need to be brought to the RSC meeting in March and will be tallied at that point.

I have brought the order form for the CAR to today's ASC and will be asking for those GSR's that wish to have these ordered for them. (Note: 8 GSR's asked for the ASC to order the CAR and the Area Admin will be ordering 11)

Anyone wishing to download the CAR for free can do so at www.na.org/conference. The user id and password is WSC 2010. (I'm not sure if the space is necessary). Again, this will be made available on the NAWS website on November 25.

We will be holding a CAR workshop for all interested GSR's and members in the South Broward, South Atlantic, Gold Coast and Midcoast areas on December 20,2009 at 2203 Hollywood Blvd. The workshop will start at 12:00 and be facilitated by our Regional Delegate, Dave M and Alternate Delegate, Frank L.
