Activities -.

Addict called Fred Hi from Activities,

We are waiting to hear From Area today on how much money we will have to put on the 20th Anniversary picnic. The deposit for TY park is paid the speaker is lined up. If Area is low on funds we are asking for groups to volunteer to bring a covered dish and we will provide the basics. This is South Broward 20th Anniversary, please spread the word to come and join us for a day of fun and fellowship. I would like to introduce our new Vice- Chair Donna M

Activities Treasurer – No written report submitted.

Helpline/Public Relations –

Helpline Minutes February 18 2010

Members present: Barry, Marie, Amy, Dave, Joey, John, Michael, Michelle, Norinne, Paul, Steve, Sue, Tracey, YoFrank.

New members: Brian, Doug.

Open Forum:

- Rob mentioned about the new Basic H&I guide, and Public Relations Basic guide drafts from World Service.
- Joey discussed about a caller requesting meeting lists be delivered, and Barry informed the group that it is ok to drop off meeting lists anywhere that they are requested.

Public Relations:

- Barry gave us a rundown of what happened with the meeting at Susan B. Basically, the clients are allowed to get rides to meetings with other women, and that way they could spread out to different meetings. Also discussed was the possibility of other addicts babysitting for the children. Marie and Sue brought up trying to make a list of addicts who are willing to help out with rides, and suggested maybe earlier meetings. Sue said she is willing to coordinate a list of women willing to give rides to the clients.
- Barry informed us that he was asked by the regional chair to go to Venice with another member of Helpline for a Public Relations presentation.

Shift sheets were reviewed

Old Business:

- Fundraiser:
 - o Dave suggested an ethnic dinner with food donations and ticket sales.
 - o Marie mentioned poker or darts tournament, but those are too close to gambling.
 - o Barry suggested a sponsor/sponsee spaghetti dinner, and then a cook off type of deal was suggested.
 - o YoFrank volunteered to find a place to hold the fund raiser at.
 - o We will discuss next month and lock in a date.

New Business:

- No new business.

Next meeting will be held on March 18 2010. Thank you for the opportunity to serve, Amy

Literature Distribution –

Group orders $1267.60
H and I order $110.00
RSO order was $677.19
Misc. orders 0
Meeting list $148.40

CHECK REQUEST $148.40 plus copies $16.96 = $165.36

Last month while I was not here a motion was past here on the floor to change policy to buy from the Florida RSO with the intent to pay tax. First of all to my understanding any change of policy MUST go back to groups. And second if the real intent of the motion is to pay tax we could simply pay tax to the Carolinas RSO, which is the same amount. Carolina does offer some better pricing. And in these times we must be prudent with our funds no matter how small the savings.

I have done a comparison and to today's totals we have saved $309.18 in Lit orders from the Carolina RSO, but to be fair we have paid $4.29 more in shipping. I would like to suggest that this motion should be sent back to groups with the above information.

It is an honor to serve, the lit committee and Melody F

We are under prudent reserve for the seventh month in a row.

I made a mistake and forgot to mail the checks out last month.

Here are the corrections:

Fred S., Activities Chair, ended up paying the February Rent for the activities storage unit out of his pocket. I reimbursed him with cash and will mail Check #3189 (the one I didn't send last month) to pay for March's storage rent.

Melody F., Literature Chair, ended up paying the February Rent for the literature storage unit along with the March Rent. I paid her back with Check #3196, which also reimbursed her for the order forms and meeting lists that were printed. Check #3190 (the one I didn't send last month for literature storage) is voided and I added that amount back in to our balance.

Thanks –

~Suzi
